

Gentlemen: VRS is proving itself to be a vital communications tool for the deaf and hearing impaired. However, low funding levels have resulted in too few interpreters resulting in long waits. The level also deteriorates and with the exception of Sorenson has not met requirements for a top level service. Please do what is necessary.